Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) cell of NERIST organized a workshop on "Tech4Seva" on 7th July 2022

Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) cell of NERIST organized a workshop on "Tech4Seva" on 7th July 2022 at the Regional Level in honor of the 75th Anniversary of Independence "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" in online mode. The program's main objective is to provide an opportunity or platform for technology demonstration at the regional level. A total of 90 participants registered and 66 participated during the workshop. The workshop is chaired by Prof. R. M. Pant, Vice-Chancellor Assam University, Silchar, (Assam) as a Chief Guest and Guest of Honor Dr. D. Mahanta, Project Director CoE for Bioresources and Sustainable Development, Kimin (AP), Prof. O. P. Roy, Director NERIST (i/c), Expert members Dr. M. L. Jadav, College of Agriculture, Indore (MP) and Dr. P. Kalita, School of Energy Science and Engineering, IIT Guwahati, (Assam).

The program starts with a briefing about Tech4Seva by Dr. T. Patel, Coordinator UBA RCI NERIST. Prof. P. Lingfa, Regional Coordinator UBA RCI NERIST welcomes all the guests and brief about Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA), Experts Dr. M. L. Jadav and Dr. P. Kalita has given the importance of rural need-based technology. The guest of Honor Dr. D. Mahanta address to participants and invite to visit the "Centre for Bio resources and Sustainable Development & Rural Technology Demonstration Centre". Prof. O. P. Roy, Director NERIST (i/c) addressed to participants and highlight the various activities undergoing in the NERIST related to rural development. Chief Guest Prof. R. M. Pant, Vice-Chancellor Assam University, Silchar address to participants and asked them to participate in rural development by help of technology A total of 04 technologies demonstrated by the presenter during the workshop.

News Paper Clips

NERIST UBA cell conducts online workshop on 'Tech4Seva'

NIRJULI 7 Jul: The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) cell of the NERIST here organised a regional level online workshop on 'Tech4Seva' in Thursday.

"The programme was aimed at providing a platform for technology demonstration at the regional level," the institute said in a press release, adding that 66 resource persons took part in the workshop

"and a total of four technologies were demonstrated."

During the workshop, Silchar-based Assam University Vice Chancellor Prof RM Pant asked the participants to "involve themselves in rural development by help of technology."

NERIST Director (in-charge) Prof OP Roy highlighted the activities related to rural development underway in the NERIST.

Kimin-based CoE for Bioresources and Sustainable Development Project Director Dr D Mahanta also spoke.

Experts from the College of Agriculture, Indore (MP), Dr ML Jadav from the School of Energy Science and Engineering, IIT Guwahati, and Dr P Kalita spoke on "the importance of rural need-based technology."

Online workshop on 'Tech4Seva' conducted

NIRJULI, Jul 7: Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) Cell of NERIST here on Thursday organized a regional level workshop on "Tech4Seva" in virtual mode to commemorate the 75th anniversary of Independence "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav". The main objective of the program was to provide a platform for technology demonstration at the regional level.

Chaired by Prof RM Pant, Vice-Chancellor of Assam University, Silchar (Assam), the workshop was attended by Project Director, CoE (Centre of Excellence) for Bio-resources and Sustainable Development, Kimin, Dr Debajit Mahanta, NERIST Director (i/c) Prof O P Roy, and experts Dr ML Jadav from College of Agriculture, Indore and Dr P Kalita from School of Energy Science and Engineering, IIT Guwahati.

Stressing on the usage of technology in rural development, Prof Pant, in his address, asked the participants to participate in rural development with the help of technology.

Prof Roy also addressed the participants and highlighted the various activities undertaken in the NERIST related to rural development. A total of 4 technologies were demonstrated during the workshop.

Arunachal Times   Echo of Arunachal